

CHRONICLE

Current Issue of Tanzania Veterinary Bulletin, who is who/where and Formation of Administrative Departments

R.Tucker and Dr.Mrema

The current issue completes the first volume of the Tanzanian Veterinary Bulletin. On this occasion I wish to thank all members of the Editorial Committee and Dr. B.U. Kothari for collaboration as well as Mrs. G. Stavengaden Heijer for most efficient managing of the office.

Visiting Academics

Dr. Neal Stickland, Edinburgh - Anatomy has participated in the teaching programme of the School - September-October 1979.

Dr. J.L. Leaver, Edinburgh, Biochemistry was also teaching during the same period.

The following Departments have been formed

1. Department of Anatomy, Head: Professor Richard Tucker
2. Department of Physiology, Biochemistry and Pharmacology, Head: Professor Ivan Berecky
3. Department of Pathology, Head: Doctor William Semuguruka
4. Department of Bacteriology and Parasitology, Acting Head: Doctor U.M. Minga
5. Department of Surgery, Obstetrics and Reproduction, Acting Head: Doctor B.M. Kessy
6. Department of Medicine and Public Health, Head: Professor C.L. Kombo

Who Is Where? Our Colleagues in the field and research

1. Dr. C.L. Mollel is directing the Serengeti Research Institute.
2. Dr. C.J. Jibbo is still with Amboni Estates Ltd. in Mkwana Ranch, Tanga,
3. Dr. J.C. Mhina of Wellcome Tanzania, may work with Wellcome Nairobi,
4. Dr. K. Loretu is Senior Veterinary Research Officer in the Central Veterinary Laboratory Temeke.

The Regional Livestock Development Officers are:

1. Dr. C.G. Hatibu – Singida,
2. L.K.H. Tesha - Kilimanjaro,
3. J.L. Mrema - Tanga,
4. E.J. Mackay - Dodoma, and
5. E.S. Munuo - Rukwa.

Dr. L.L. Ilmolelian is busying himself with research in the Ministry; he is assistant Director (Research) Division of Livestock Development, Ministry of Agriculture, Dar es Salaam, P.O. Box 9152

Dr. A.M. Chagula is the Senior Veterinary Officer, Division of Livestock Development at the same address.